Last week we had the Jazz trio from Sowerby Music For Life come and spend the day with us. They gave us a concert on the piano, drums and double bass, As you can see from the picture, a number of the children also had a go. Two classes took part in workshops and performed to the school at the end of the day.

Indoor Athletics

Well done to our Indoor Athletics team who won went through to the final of the competition. The final will be held this Friday and we wish them well for this event.

A Visit from the BBC

The BBC have now given us more details of the Ten Pieces Takeover Day we will be taking part in on Thursday 19th March. The BBC are bringing 10 members of the BBC Philharmonic Orchestra and film crew. The day will start with a whole school assembly followed by a music workshop for some of our pupils. There will also be an opportunity for a group of pupils to work with a film maker to create a short film. At the end of the day, there will be a performance by the musicians and a chance to view the work that has gone on during the day. The film crew will be filming throughout the day. The films made will be uploaded onto the BBC Website and broadcast in local and national media. To enable your child to take part, you will need to complete a consent from which will be circulated with this newsletter. Please note, we must receive your consent by Friday 13th February. This looks like it will be a very exciting day!

World Book Day—David Walliams Competition

Win a flying visit from David Walliams!

Our Primary school could win a flying visit from bestselling author David Walliams. David will mark World Book Day 5th March 2015 by touring the UK's primary schools in a helicopter. Primary schools can take part in the #WalliamsWhirlwind tour by registering on the author's website www.worldofdavidwalliams.com and explaining in fifty words why they should receive a visit. The deadline for entries is 6th February. As one of the UK's most successful children's author this would be an amazing way to celebrate World Book Day and create a buzz around school.
