

Carlton Miniott Primary Academy

Welcome to Carlton Miniott Primary Academy

Welcome to the first newsletter from Carlton Miniott Primary Academy. We are now officially part of the Elevate Multi-Academy Trust. You will have already noticed changes on the school website and we have just had information that the new school uniform will be available from the school shop from 19th February. The process for ordering school uniform and bags will be exactly the same as it has been. We understand that your children may not need new school uniform and we are happy if the children wear the Carlton Miniott Primary School uniform until the end of this academic year.

As part of our work on extending PE opportunities for our children, the Y3/4 children we have been holding squash lessons led by Diane Harker. This culminated in a visit to Thirsk Squash Club where the children used a full size squash court.

Music for life

Last week Janet Fulton came to share her percussion skills with the children and teach them about the instruments she played. The children made up pieces of music to go with the characters of Jungle Book and performed these to the rest of the school. Thank you to Friends of School for funding this.

World Book Day

We will be holding World Book Day on Friday 2nd March. The children may dress up as book characters on the theme of Heros and Villains.

They may also bring in their favourite book to share.

Academy/Ofsted information

Please see an excerpt from a letter on the Ofsted website regarding the conversion and where to access the letter in full.

Academy conversion and predecessor schools

Under the Academies Act 2010, schools may apply to the Secretary of State to convert to academy status. Such schools are known as academy converters.

Upon conversion to academy status the existing school closes and a new school opens in its place. Although little may have changed, the academy converter is a new legal entity.

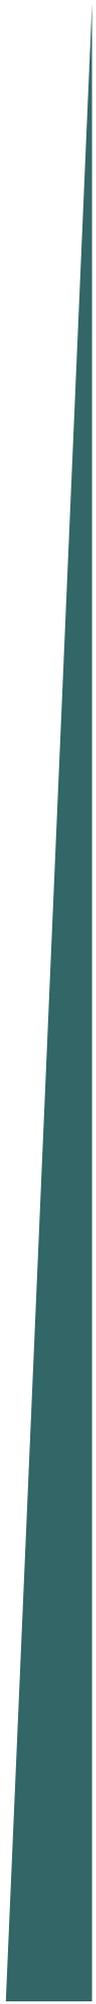

Most academy converters have yet to have a section 5 inspection. However, to assist parents and other interested parties, information about, and the inspection history of the school which preceded the new academy are available. The link to the predecessor school will be removed when the school has been closed for either three or five years depending on the date of closure, and removed from the Ofsted website. Information about when closed providers are removed from the website is online at <http://www.ofsted.gov.uk/about-us/faqs>

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
